Blaine it is, and is to be. Let us begin, therefore, to elect him now.

Queen Victoria has real hair. That is why she will not take anybody's "sass."

Judge W. W. Johnson has been forced, by continued ill health, to resign his seat on the supreme bench of Ohio, and Governor Foraker will appoint his successor.

Charleston will soon be a new city, and a solid city—and handsome—than she ever was before. The earthquake shocks are proving already to have been a blessing in disguise.

The fool friend was quite numerous during the late campaign, and it saddens all men of sense to realize that he has come through the contest, safely, in a condition to do mischief hereafter.

We must elect republican city officers and a republican council and board of education next spring and we should begin doing this now. The best men for all positions should be brought out and elected.

Young republicans should organize into local clubs, everywhere, by way of preparing for the political battle of 1888. And old republicans should be sworn in as honorary and honorable members.

The Akron Beacon truthfully and pointedly remarks that "Mr. Whitely nearly whipped Kennedy, and may thank himself more than all other men for the unprecedented democratic victory in Clark county through the K. of L. coalition."

The Springfield GLOBE-REPUBLIC people got out a very handsome morning edition of their paper yesterday, with all the election news. It was a very commendable enterprise and very ably carried out. The GLOBE-REPUBLIC seems to be prospering.

The Gazette people know a good thing when they see it.

If the election of the next president should "go to the House," that body, according to the unit rule vote, would elect the republican candidate, as twenty of the thirty-eight states are in the hands of men of that party. It will not "go to the House," however, for Blaine will have a majority of the electoral vote and be elected by the people.

The official canvass in the Seventh congressional district of Ohio was completed Friday evening. It increased Little's vote in all the counties except democratic Butler, in which sufficient democratic votes were found to put Campbell, democrat, three ahead, leaving Little out. A significant fact to be considered in connection with this is that seventeen prohibition votes were cast at Cedarville with the name of the prohibition candidate scratched off, and the name of Campbell written in. This fact speaks for itself.

The Dayton Journal makes this statement concerning the assertion that Whitehall Reid, of the Tribune, was helped in purchasing the paper and buying the Villard mansion by his wife's father:

Mr. Reid was a large stockholder in the Tribune before he married, and had a comfortable surplus besides, the fruit of his own business operations and application to business. His wife was quite as fortunate in her husband as he is in his wife.

This is fully and conspicuously true, in all respects. We know it.

A correspondent of the London Daily News has given this fine and concise description of the Bartholdi statue:

The statue in spite of its size, and not of course, because of it, is a really work of art. The artist is a true Frenchman, which counts for something in the result, and as sculptor of the huge lion of Belfort he has brought special experience to his task. The pose, as it has been well said, is simple and majestic, the modelling broad and massive, yet, where it needs, it is finely finished. The face, the parts of the drapery that have the delicacy of the work on a statuette, and this is enhanced by a wholly accidental effect. The way, namely, in which the metal is wrought by the hammer gives the whole surface a kind of mottled light breaks up the light precisely as it is broken up on silk. The lower part of the statue is a piece of beautiful texture work, while the mantle above, in its majestic folds, is a good example of the management of masses of copper.

The following editorial, which appears in the Xenia Daily Gazette, of Thursday, is a plain statement of the facts of the local situation here, made by a gentleman who is without personal bias:

The Champion City Times, the organ of the Whiteites at Springfield, came out on Monday, the 1st inst., on election day, saying that if Gen. Kennedy should run behind the republican ticket they would acknowledge that the advocacy of his election in the Times was injurious to him, but if he should pull a larger vote than that cast for the county ticket, then the Times would claim its advocacy of him had been to his benefit.

Now for the result. Kennedy lost Springfield by 755, while Robinson, republican, for secretary of state, received 340 majority in the city, showing that Kennedy run almost a thousand votes behind him in Springfield. Will the Times acknowledge the corn now, or will it crawl?

The fact that the Whiteites' action towards the Knights of Labor would be a plain injury to the republican party, was so great to everybody, that there was strong talk that the republican state central committee would demand the discontinuance of the paper. Whether such demand was made, we are not aware, but certain it is that it has been a great thorn in the flesh of the republican party. When the circumstances of its establishment (opposition to the Knights of Labor) are considered, it seems passing strange that any considerable number of people can be found to either take the paper or advertise in it.

In life and being, too, are based on the abominable "double" theory that the millionaire may and will crush from the face of the earth all who dare raise their hands against him, no odds at what cost to him.

Because the Knights of Labor men of Springfield dared criticize his action towards the Knights of Labor, he forthwith starts his organ, and almost gives it away, so as to injure it with his mighty power, kill the other papers for their hardihood in depicting his methods.

People who patronize the paper say there by that, for the sake of saving a few cents per week, they are willing to aid in crushing out established newspapers at the dictum of a double boss trying to crush out a movement on the part of the people to protect themselves. It is a disreputable business all around.

The following is from the Ohio State Journal, of Saturday:

The New York Christian Advocate, the eastern organ of the great Methodist church, lays down a liberal view of the Andoverians would certainly have no difficulty in accepting it. It says the heathen who have no knowledge of Christ are not judged by the standard of Christian civilization, and that those of them in whom God sees "the spirit of faith and the purpose of righteousness" are saved by the blood of Christ as effectively as if they were voluntarily accepted him. If this means anything, it means that all the heathen who have died in past ages without a knowledge of the gospel, but who yet lived in the best light they had, and, with the necessary limitations and imperfections of human nature, did righteousness as they saw the right, are not lost, but are enjoying heaven and the presence of God.

The Advocate is edited by the Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, and his position is consistent with the intelligent, enlightened, catholic orthodoxy of the present day. The Ohio State Journal comments on this as follows:

This doubtless would be satisfactory enough to the Andover professors, but it is not in accordance with that stern Calvinistic creed which Andover seminary was founded to teach. Neatly the Andover professors, while inaugurating a divided sentiment in their own church, are evidently, as the above statement from the Christian Advocate shows, drawing nearer to the churches of Arminian faith.

Whether this is in accordance with "that stern Calvinistic creed" which Andover seminary was founded to teach, is not a matter of much consequence.

The Young Men's Blaine club, of Cincinnati, sends out the following sensible and ringing address to the republicans of Ohio:

CINCINNATI, November 4, 1886.

A NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

When one has been suffering the agonies of a severe attack of rheumatism, neuralgia or sciatica and relief comes, if a new lease of life has been granted. Such have been the feelings of thousands who, after trying physicians and numberless remedies, have used Atholophos and found to their great joy that this medicine really did cure these diseases.

O. P. Shaffer, formerly managing editor of the News-Register, Youngstown, O., said in a recent interview with him: "I have suffered from rheumatism for about thirteen years. At different intervals I have been unable to attend to my business for weeks at a time. The most of my trouble was in my hands and arms. The pain was usually accompanied with considerable swelling of my hands. During these years I have used many kinds of remedies with only temporary relief. It was the newspaper business I had come in contact with various medicines that were advertised in our columns, but really never had much faith in patent medicines. A little over three years ago my attention was called to Atholophos. I noticed from time to time the strong endorsement of parties that had used the remedy and was sent to us for publication in our paper. Through this means I concluded to try the medicine for my own case. I was relieved and cured in a remarkably short time."

"I have been troubled with rheumatism since," was asked. "I was entirely free of it for two years and then had another slight attack, but a few doses of Atholophos soon drove it away; since that time, I have been entirely free from rheumatism. This was all done with less than a bottle of medicine. I always recommend it for rheumatism."

"Every druggist should keep Atholophos and Atholophos Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Atholophos Pills, which is $1.00 per bottle for Atholophos and 50c for Pills."

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervousness, and all ailments of the blood, Atholophos is unequalled. A blood, as Atholophos Pills are unequalled.
